La Crème, Cork's leading recruitment agency for office support professionals, is hosting an open day for temporary and contract office support on Thursday 19th July in our Cork office.

We are currently recruiting for a number of exciting temporary and contract roles in Cork. There is no better time to be proactive and take this opportunity to meet with one of our experienced consultants who specialise in your area to get invaluable advice on career opportunities, market information, CV structure and interview skills.

Why choose temp and contract?

It allows you to gain invaluable experience and get exposure to a variety of different systems, sectors and industries. It shows that you are adaptable to environments, flexible and can hit the ground running.

It's a fantastic opportunity to build the experience on your CV.

If this sounds like something you would be interested in or if you've been considering temporary opportunities and you're available immediately, register your interest today!

Please register your interest by submitting your CV here.
